From the Civil War’s Red River Campaign to the Louisiana Maneuvers in preparation for World War II, thousands of soldiers have marched through this area. Visit the LOUISIANA MANEUVERS & MILITARY MUSEUM, FORTS RANDOLPH & BUHLOW STATE HISTORIC SITE and THE SOUTHERN FOREST HERITAGE MUSEUM. Visit WWII exhibits at THE HISTORIC HOTEL BENTLEY.

Stop by the LOUISIANA HISTORY MUSEUM and then view the architecture of the historic churches or stroll the pre-Civil War era cemeteries in Pineville.

Experience the 1800s at Central Louisiana’s oldest standing structure, KENT PLANTATION HOUSE. Visit the Harvest Barn at INGLEWOOD PLANTATION for fresh produce.

Spend time in Alexandria’s Cultural Arts District, which includes the ALEXANDRIA MUSEUM OF ART, the RIVER OAKS SQUARE ARTS CENTER and so much more. Plan to attend an event at COUGHLIN-SAUNDERS PERFORMING ARTS CENTER or THE KRESS THEATRE. Bring the kids to experience science hands-on at the T.R.E.E. HOUSE CHILDREN’S MUSEUM.

With theatre performances throughout the year, LAGNIAPPE THEATRE COMPANY, CITY PARK PLAYERS, SPECTRAL SISTERS and THE UNUSUAL SUSPECTS, along with LOUISIANA COLLEGE’S THEATRE LC and LSU’s EMPTY SPACE PLAYERS produce entertainment the whole family is sure to enjoy.

Central Louisiana has a rich shopping experience, from locally-owned SPECIALTY BOUTIQUES to ANTIQUE MARKETS and GIFT SHOPS.

Food is a way of life in the Alexandria/Pineville Area all year long. Whether FINE DINING downtown or FRIED OYSTERS on the lake, come enjoy our locally-owned and operated restaurants for authentic SHRIMP PO-BOYS, FRIED CATFISH, RED BEANS AND RICE or FALL-OFF-THE-BONE BARBEQUE.

Central Louisiana thrills with unforgettable animal experiences at GONE WILD SAFARI and the award-winning ALEXANDRIA ZOO or you can get moving with horseback riding or disc golf.

Hike or bike Louisiana’s longest hiking trail, the WILD AZALEA TRAIL in KISATCHIE NATIONAL FOREST, a part of the five recreation and four wildlife management areas. This variety inspired National Geographic Magazine to name Alexandria, Louisiana, one of “America’s Top 100 Best Adventure Towns.”
